Managing a portfolio of any size is a challenge. We feel we have the experience via the group to facilitate any size and nature of works to ensure that current legislative standards are met in full and that the client obligations regarding transparency are achieved.

Project Information

PA Group has undertaken many surveys, assessments and remediation within residential properties, having most recently been engaged in the survey of thousands of properties for various organisations.

We have undertaken numerous term contracts and developed survey, assessment and methodology strategies to ensure multi discipline visits to dwellings to maximise access opportunities and save considerable money.
